...and caring.

At Samaritan, we're all about compassion

In that spirit, we understand that your budget may be tight at times, making it hard for you to keep up with your payments.

When you're experiencing difficulties, help us help you. Please call our administrative office at 412.741.7430. Together, we'll make payment arrangements to help ease the strain on your budget.

- 🌐 The best times to reach us are on weekdays between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. If your call goes to voicemail, please leave a message and we'll get back to you.
- 🌐 Remember, your co-pays and deductibles are due at the time of service.

If this is a problem for you, ask your therapist to add your credit card information to our vault. We will automatically deduct the amount that you owe on a per-session basis. Samaritan will never use your account information for any other purpose.

- 🌐 Don't wait until you fall seriously behind in your payments—give us a call so we can help.

Each therapy session builds on the previous one, which is vital to your progress. Please don't allow nonpayment to interrupt your services.

Thank you for your cooperation!
