

Samaritan Is Here for You

When you're emotionally wounded or struggling through difficult circumstances, you may feel powerless. But rest assured you can achieve healing, hope, and life-changing growth through counseling with Samaritan.

An Unsurpassed Level of Care

Whether you are experiencing the effects of trauma, an unhealthy relationship, or a clinical disorder, Samaritan can help.

Samaritan therapists are Pennsylvania licensed and credentialed in numerous areas of therapy. We use the best available practices in the mental health field and embrace a compassionate, holistic approach. Working with adults, youth, couples, and families, we are committed to tailoring a course of care to address your unique needs.

Spiritual Integration

Many people find that integrating their faith resources into counseling enhances their healing and satisfaction with treatment outcomes. Samaritan therapists receive specialized training in spiritually-integrated therapy. Feel free to let your therapist know that you want to blend your faith beliefs into your therapy. Your therapist will accommodate you within the context of your beliefs without imposing his or her own or other beliefs in the process.

I thought I was at a point where nothing could be done for me. But at Samaritan I found peace and got control of my life. Samaritan helps us get our lives back together when we're at our lowest point.

— Mindy

Counseling saved my marriage. What I received at Samaritan is beyond what I'd found with other counselors.

— Jeff
