

On November 1, 2017 a very significant event occurred at Samaritan. The Rev. Dr. Graham Standish, left, took over the helm as executive director when Carl Baughman, right, retired after 24 years of service.

Sewickley Living Magazine published a lovely article about both of their careers, Samaritan board members, and the organization's mission of hope and healing in their December 2017 issue.

Top Right: A group of donors casually conversing at the Sewickley home of Carolyn Smith for a reception honoring all Samaritan donors. Bottom Right: Fr. Jay Donahue, pastor of Saints Simon and Jude Parish, Graham Standish, Carolyn Smith, president of Samaritan's board, and the retired Carl Baughman.

PHOTO CREDITS: Ray Cordero, Mainline Photography