

Samaritan Counseling is seeking licensed Mental Health Therapists who want to work in a supportive, collaborative work culture with excellent wages and benefits.

Headquartered in Sewickley, Pennsylvania, Samaritan Counseling, Guidance, Consulting is looking for exceptional part-time—but preferably full-time—therapists to serve at our Gibsonia and Sewickley offices. The position in Sewickley is immediate; the position in Gibsonia will be available in August. If you are a compassionate, licensed therapist who is ready to:

- Take control over your own work/life balance;
- Be generously reimbursed for your productivity;
- Connect to a creative community of therapists who support and encourage one another...

then we would like to talk with you.

Samaritan therapists are special people. We foster hope, healing, and change for men, women, and children by attending to their mental, emotional, relational and spiritual lives. We are sensitive to all the faith, beliefs, and religious or non-religious traditions of the people we serve. We also serve all people, without discriminating on any basis, and welcome people with or without faith or religious practices.

Samaritan offers our therapists encouragement and opportunities to:

- Use their skills and specialty areas to develop and present workshops, groups, and other creative events in the communities we serve.
- Develop their personal and professional growth, including CEU-accredited groups and training.
- Provide both in-person* and teletherapy (*We take appropriate precautions to ensure the health and safety of our staff and clients.)

We prefer our therapists to be experienced working with adults, children, adolescents, and couples preferred, but we are not opposed to making an exception for the right candidate. However, all candidates must be PA state licensed.

Compensation

Full-time licensed therapists work with a minimum of 28 clients per week receiving $80,000-$89,000 per year based on 28-35 clients per week.

Part-time therapists work with a minimum of 15 clients per week and can earn $41,650 or more based on number of clients seen each week.

Benefits

Samaritan provides competitive reimbursement, healthcare benefits for full-time employees, paid time-off, an IRA plan, and opportunities for continuing education. In compliance with the CDC's health mitigation guidelines, we are currently providing video and phone therapy or in-person sessions where social distancing can be accommodated.

If you are a PA licensed therapist who is interested in a part or full-time position, please forward your resume to: Susan Young, Clinical Director at syoung@samaritancounseling.net

About Samaritan

Founded in 1982, Samaritan Counseling, Guidance, Consulting is a nonprofit counseling center that serves men, women, and children from multiple locations in Western Pennsylvania. As counselors, we provide professional counseling while showing compassion, and never passing judgment. As guides we help provide coaching, spiritual direction, anger management, and support groups. As consultants, we serve congregations and non-profits to help them enrich their work cultures. We offer educational workshops for couples, parents, families, and the community at large. Samaritan's culture fosters a spirit of caring, trust, encouragement, diversity, and growth among our employees.

Our state-licensed therapists empower clients, from all backgrounds and faiths, to achieve mental and emotional wellness. Samaritan therapists utilize the most up-to-date clinical best practices and counsel from a holistic approach. We serve all people without discriminating on ANY basis, including inability to pay. We serve clients as they are and the healing they seek.

Samaritan accepts most major insurances and offers a program that provides fee subsidies for those lacking the resources to pay. We are fully compliant with the Center for Disease Control (CDC) health mitigation guidelines for both in-person therapy and teletherapy.
